

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Eleanor Rhodes began her service to the Federal Government in 1960, working for the Senate Labor Committee. She also worked for the House Republican Conference, and then joined the staff of the late Senator Peter Dominick. On January 3, 1975, she joined the staff of Senator Larry Pressler where she has served for almost 13 years; and,

WHEREAS, Eleanor was one of the first employees of the then Congressman Larry Pressler, serving as his personal secretary, then becoming administrative assistant, which she continues to serve in Senator Pressler's office; and,

WHEREAS, This native of South Carolina has adopted South Dakota as her "second home." She has spent endless hours traveling from one corner of South Dakota to the other meeting and working with people at every stop. The friends she has made throughout the state are numerous; and,

WHEREAS, Her commitment to Senator Pressler and the Republican Party in South Dakota has been tireless; and,

WHEREAS, She has earned the respect of the members of Senator Pressler's staff—having truly become a member of the family; and,

WHEREAS, Eleanor will probably miss her shopping excursions in South Dakota to buy cowboy boots and Black Hills gold jewelry—and most especially her favorite meal "steak";

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 29, 1987, as

and I declare that Eleanor Rhodes is a "Citizen for Life" in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Third Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOHN HARTLINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
